Bryce Harlow Foundation Names New Officers and Board Members

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 22, 2019 – The Bryce Harlow Foundation, the premier organization in Washington for government advocacy, has appointed new officers and nine new board members. At the foundation’s January 16 board meeting, the following government relations professionals joined the board for three-year terms: Mike Kiely, Senior Vice President and Managing Director, U.S. Government Relations for UPS; Liz Reicherts, Vice President of Government Affairs and Head of U.S. Government Affairs for Siemens Corporation, and David Woodruff, Assistant Vice President and Head of U.S. Public and Government Affairs for the Canadian National Railway Company.

The Foundation also welcomed new officers. Rich Gold, partner at Holland & Knight LLP was named chairman. He replaces Dawn Sweeney, president and CEO at the National Restaurant Association, whose one-year term as chairman expired. Katherine Lugar, president and CEO of the American Beverage Association, was appointed vice chairman and, Brett Loper, Senior Vice President of Government Affairs at American Express was named secretary/treasurer.

“The Bryce Harlow Foundation is fortunate to continually attract talented and respected advocates to serve on the board,” said Barbara Faculjak, president of the Foundation. “Our board members are dedicated to the educational mission of the foundation and serve as excellent role models for Bryce Harlow Fellows, the next generation of government advocates.”

About the Bryce Harlow Foundation

The Bryce Harlow Foundation was established in 1981 in honor of the late Bryce Harlow to promote integrity within the lobbying profession and to increase the understanding of its essential role in the development of sound public policy. Bryce Harlow, who served with four U.S. presidents, established the first White House Congressional Liaison Office and served as its director during the Eisenhower and Nixon administrations. The Foundation provides scholarships to graduate students who work full time and foresee a career in government advocacy.
