Bryce Harlow Foundation Names New Officers and Board Members

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 12, 2023 – The Bryce Harlow Foundation, the premier organization in Washington for government advocacy, has appointed new officers and four new board members. At the Foundation’s January 11 board meeting, the following professionals joined the board for three-year terms: Genna Gent, vice president of global public policy and government relations for McDonald’s, Karis Gutter, government and industry affairs for Corteva, Tonya Muse, consultant with Heidrick & Struggles, Orson Porter with Teneo, Lori Reilly, chief operating officer for PhRMA, and Mary Beth Stanton with Invariant. The Foundation also welcome emeritus governor Rich Gold, partner at Holland & Knight LLP and advisory board member Bryce Harlow, with Team Subject Matter.

The Foundation also welcomed new officers. Liz Reicherts was named chairman. She replaces David French, senior vice president of government relations for the National Retail Federation whose one-year term as chairman expired. Lynn Taylor was appointed vice chairman and Francis Creighton, president and CEO of the Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America, was named secretary/treasurer.

“The Bryce Harlow Foundation is fortunate to continually attract talented and respected advocates to serve on the board,” said Barbara Faculjak, president of the Foundation. “Our board members are dedicated to the educational mission of the foundation and serve as excellent role models for Bryce Harlow Fellows, the next generation of government advocates.”

About the Bryce Harlow Foundation

The Bryce Harlow Foundation was established in 1981 in honor of the late Bryce Harlow to promote integrity within the lobbying profession and to increase the understanding of its essential role in the development of sound public policy. Bryce Harlow, who served with four U.S. presidents, established the first White House Congressional Liaison Office and
