

Bryce Harlow Foundation

Integrity in Government Advocacy

2055 L Street NW, Suite 700 · Washington, DC 20036

Bryce Harlow Foundation Names New Officers and Board Members

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 18, 2024 – The Bryce Harlow Foundation, the premier organization in Washington, D.C. dedicated to integrity in professional government advocacy, appoints new 2024 executive officers and seven new Governors to the board. At the Foundation’s January meeting, Lynn Taylor, a global corporate affairs executive, was named chair. She replaces Elizabeth Reicherts, global head of government relations for SolarEdge Technologies, whose one-year term as chair expired. Francis Creighton, president and CEO of the Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America, was appointed vice chair and Lori Reilly, Chief Operating Officer of PhRMA, was named secretary/treasurer.

New Governors joining the board for three-year terms include: Sean Broderick, Senior Director, Global Government Relations and Public Policy with Procter & Gamble; Naomi Camper, Chief Policy Officer with the American Bankers Association; Steve Haro, Executive Vice President, Government Affairs for TelevisaUnivision; Chris Long, Chief Strategic Officer and Senior Vice President of Government Affairs at the Better Medicare Alliance; Chris Keuleman, Vice President, Global Government Relations for International Paper; and Rachel Miller, Managing Partner with Forbes Tate Partners. The Foundation also welcomed emeritus governor Beth Fowler, senior client partner at Korn/Ferry International.

“The Bryce Harlow Foundation is fortunate to continually attract Washington’s most talented and respected advocates to serve on the board,” said Barbara Faculjak, president of the Foundation. “Our board members are dedicated to the educational mission of the foundation and serve as excellent role models for Bryce Harlow Fellows, the next generation of government advocates.”

About the Bryce Harlow Foundation

The Bryce Harlow Foundation was established in 1981 in honor of the late Bryce Harlow to promote integrity within the lobbying profession and to increase the understanding of its essential role in the development of sound public policy. Bryce Harlow, who served with four U.S. presidents, established the first White House Congressional Liaison Office and served as its director during the Eisenhower and Nixon administrations. The Foundation provides scholarships to graduate students who work full time and foresee a career in government advocacy. For more information, please visit www.bryceharlow.org.

Bryce Harlow Foundation

Integrity in Government Advocacy

2055 L Street NW, Suite 700 · Washington, DC 20036

Media Contact: Barbara Faculjak; Mobile: 703-402-9094

Email: bfaculjak@bryceharlow.org

###