Bryce Harlow Foundation Names New Officers and Board Members

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 15, 2026 – The Bryce Harlow Foundation, the premier organization in Washington, D.C. dedicated to integrity in professional government advocacy, appoints new 2026 executive officers and six new governors to the board. At the foundation’s January meeting, Lori Reilly, Chief Operating Officer of PhRMA, was named chair. She replaces Francis Creighton, president and CEO of the Wine & Spirits Wholesalers of America, whose one-year term as chair expired. Emily Dickens, Chief of Staff, Head of Government Affairs & Corporate Secretary for the Society for Human Resource Management, was appointed vice chair, and Naomi Camper, Chief Policy Officer at American Bankers Association, was named secretary/treasurer.

New Governors joining the board for three-year terms include Anne Bradbury, President & CEO of AXPC, American Exploration & Production Council; Brian Dodge, President & CEO of the Retail Industry Leaders Association; Jeff Marootian, President & CEO of UL Standards & Engagement; James Sonne, Head of Government Affairs, PGIM - Prudential Financial; and Phillip Wallace, Vice President, Senior Policy Advisor at MVP Strategies. Craig Purser, President & CEO of the National Beer Wholesalers of America, re-joined the board as an Emeritus Governor. “The Bryce Harlow Foundation is fortunate to continually attract Washington’s most talented and respected advocates to serve on the board,” said Barbara Faculjak, president of the foundation. “Our board members are dedicated to the educational mission of the foundation and serve as excellent role models for Bryce Harlow Fellows, the next generation of government advocates.”

About the Bryce Harlow Foundation

The Bryce Harlow Foundation was established in 1981 in honor of the late Bryce Harlow to promote integrity within the lobbying profession and to increase the understanding of its essential role in the development of sound public policy. Bryce Harlow, who served under four U.S. presidents, established the first White House Congressional Liaison Office and served as its director during the Eisenhower and Nixon administrations. The foundation provides scholarships to graduate students who work full time and foresee a career in government advocacy. For more information, please visit www.bryceharlow.org.
